

THE E-JOB SEARCH

Name _____

You can look for help wanted signs posted in the company window. You can look for jobs in the local newspaper, but today everything is going online. Where are the best places to search for jobs on the web? Start with the list here. Follow directions for your job searches below.

<http://www.monster.com/>

<http://www.careerbuilder.com/>

<http://www.ajb.dni.us/>

<http://www.jobbankusa.com/>

<http://www.jobpostings.net/>

<http://www.dice.com/>

<http://www.computerwork.com/>

www.hotjobs.com

Job # 1 – Choose a career to research with one of the web sites above.

1. Name of job: _____

2. Search engine used: _____

3. Location of job searched: _____

4. Number of hits: _____

5. Job Skills needed according to the job ad: _____

6. Salary (if given): _____

7. How serious would you be about applying for this job, explain: _____

Job # 2 – Choose another web site to research a second job.

1. Name of job: _____

2. Search engine used: _____

3. Location of job searched: _____

4. Number of hits: _____

5. Job Skills needed according to the job ad: _____

6. Salary (if given): _____

7. How serious would you be about applying for this job, explain: _____

Job # 3 – Again, choose a different web site to research a third job.

1. Name of job: _____

2. Search engine used: _____

3. Location of job searched: _____

4. Number of hits: _____

5. Job Skills needed according to the job ad: _____

6. Salary (if given): _____

7. How serious would you be about applying for this job, explain: _____

SUMMARY—What information did you learn from your job searches and from using these web sites? Summarize in at least 5 sentences.
